THE CONCEPT OF BIBLICAL COUNSELING

Biblical counseling is committed to the position that Scripture provides the only authoritative guide for what we are to believe and how we are to live (2 Timothy 3: 16, 17). The Biblical Counselor is trained in the use of Scripture and the principles of biblical counseling. He does not base his counsel on man's wisdom, opinions, experience, or concepts of behavior, (Isaiah 55:8-11) but seeks to bring the full range of Biblical truth to focus on the counselee's need (Hebrews 4:12).

THE SCOPE OF BIBLICAL COUNSELING

Biblical counseling deals with the entire range of problems confronting mankind including grief, trauma, broken marriages, parent child relationships, fear, depression, alcohol and drug abuse, tension, anxiety, worry and any other problems that may result in mental and/or physical immobility. In short, the Biblical Counselor is equipped to deal with any problem pertaining to ourselves, our relationship to God or our fellow man (2 Peter 1:3).

TEAM COUNSELING

Counseling may be done in teams. Normally sessions are conducted with a lead counselor and may include one or two assistant counselors in attendance (Proverbs 11:14; 15:22; 18:17; 20:18; 24:6; Matthew 18:16).

MEDICAL NEEDS

Biblical counselors believe in the total health needs of the counselee. Your counselor may recommend that you have a full or specified medical examination. If medical assistance is required, counseling will continue in conjunction with medical advice.

ELEMENTS OF BIBLICAL COUNSELING

Your counselor will walk compassionately with you in this part of your life journey. He or she will use all their skill in applying Biblical principles to enable you to glorify God in your life and to enable you to gain victory over the problems that are depriving you of the peace and joy that God has promised to you in His Word. Your counselor will concentrate in three areas that are necessary for Biblical change to take place.

HOPE // Though you may be far from home, you are not alone. In Jesus Christ we have a great High Priest who has suffered and been tempted in all things, yet He never sinned. Because of Christ, even though you may be facing every sin common to man, you can have victory. God has promised that He will never leave you (Psalm 37:28; Hebrews 13:5). He will not let you be tempted beyond your endurance and that He will provide a way for you to have victory in the midst of your temptation (1 Corinthians 10:13; Hebrews 4:14-16).

CHANGE // In Christ we can learn how to lay aside the old selfish ways of living and put on the new ways of living in a manner worthy of the Lord Jesus Christ. We can learn to please God in every area of our lives. We can learn to live a godly life and to live in such a way that we will be increasing in our knowledge of God and our ability to relate to others. Biblical counseling will enable you to make practical changes (Ephesians 4:20-24; Colossians 1:10).

PRACTICE // We need to prove ourselves to be doers of God's Word and not merely hearers of the Word. In the actual practice of the Scriptures shall we be blessed in what we do, and only then will we please the Lord (James 1:22-25; Proverbs 28:13).

LENGTH OF COUNSELING

Normally, counseling sessions will last one hour per week and will continue for eight to twelve sessions. If you respond quickly to Biblical counsel, the number of counseling sessions may be lessened. However, if the counselor does not observe definite change in the first few weeks, he will seek to identify the cause of the failure, discuss it with you in order to help you to correct it.

APPOINTMENTS

Your appointments will be scheduled with your counseling team. If you are unable to attend a counseling session, please notify your counselor at least 24 hours before the session if at all possible.

WAITING PERIOD

If a counseling team is not immediately available, you may be counseled as soon as possible on a one-time basis. During this session, the counselor will provide a plan for you to follow while you are waiting for the regularly scheduled sessions. You may be asked to watch and/or listen to recorded lessons or to read a book or other materials related to your problems. This way you can begin to work on solutions to your problems immediately.

LOCAL CHURCH INVOLVEMENT

In order to achieve lasting victory over the problems of life, it is vital that each person be established in a consistent Christian walk. The Lord has provided the local church as the discipleship center (Hebrews 10:24, 25). Therefore, it is important that counseling sessions be accompanied by church attendance, participation in a group Bible study and other discipleship activities in your local or home sending church. The counseling team may contact your church or sending agency and request their assistance. One of your elders, deacons or sending agency colleagues may even become part of the counseling team, to provide the most effectual help for you. It is our commitment to do what will best bring about victory over your problems.

MATERIALS NEEDED AND EXPECTATIONS

You will need a notebook and your Bible at all sessions, including the first session. Be sure to bring them each time. Come with high expectations. You will find hope and encouragement even during your first session. We are absolutely confident that the Word of God has solutions to all of life's problems (2 Timothy 3:16-17; 2 Peter 1:3) and that includes an answer to the difficulty that prompted you to come.

COST

Counseling is a ministry of the body of Christ and by God's grace there is no cost to you.

CONSENT TO COUNSEL

We ask all individuals to read and sign our Consent to Counsel form. This form must be returned before you begin your counseling sessions. This form enables the counselee to affirm that he understands that all our counseling is entirely based on the Word of God.
